

PitR Mid-winter Mindwarmer Jan. 28 - 31, 2016

The Poland in the Rockies Society is inviting anyone who likes mountains in the winter and riveting discussions to the PitR Mid-winter Mindwarmer. This three day event will feature all that makes Poland in the Rockies legendary – the camaraderie, culture, and intellectual stimulation – and serve it up with traditional central European flair in Jasper. Weather should be similar to our summertime edition, give or take a minus in the front. The main theme for the weekend will be nationalism in Central and Eastern Europe and the topic will be tackled through lectures, workshops, and conversations with our resident historians. The other theme will be fun and that topic will be taken on through downhill and cross country skiing, warm beverages by the fire, sight-seeing, and participating in Jasper in January festival finale.

Program

Thursday	Arrival
Friday	Skiing/outdoor activities and icebreakers
Saturday	History and culture lectures and workshops with Marek Suszko from the University of Chicago and Jakub Zarzycki from the University of Wroclaw.
Sunday	Group activities and departure
Place	The Crimson in Jasper
Cost	$130/person for two nights or $200/person for three nights

Prices are based on double occupancy and include a double room for either two or three nights. The seminar on Saturday will include lunch and dinner. The price doesn't include food for the remaining meals or ski tickets. This date falls on Jasper in January and ski tickets are sold at a discount on the ski hill (approximately $65).

People who don't wish to ski can either join the group on Friday night or go cross country skiing/hiking or just relax on Friday. A group will be going cross country skiing.

To register go to www.polandintherockies.com.
Registrations are first come first serve and close on Dec. 31, 2015.
